Introductions/What's New in Your World

Everyone shared briefly what was new in Environmental Education from their agency.

Approval of March 2000 Minutes

Approved.

Guest Speaker: Kathy McGlaufflin, Director, National Project Learning Tree

Kathy spoke to the group about a variety of national level EE issues. Specifically she noted the work to reauthorize the National EE Act (now called John Chaffey EE Act) and encouraged CEEIN members to keep on top and support the pending bill that will be introduced into the House of Representative. Additionally, she talked about the National EE Training Foundation's recent report and the work of EPA's "Environmental Education Training and Partnership" program (EETAP).
